

Never become dependent on anything or anyone outside of Me

June 1, 2022 - Words from Jesus to Udo for the bride and all who have ears and hear

Jesus began... "My beloved brides, I am here for you. I am always with you, and I guide you. Although you are often unaware of My voice, you have an impulse to do something, and you follow that impulse. Often it is I who ask you for a favor. You just do not realize it. Many of you have very docile hearts. Hearts that are attuned to My wishes. Through you I do unimaginable amazing things without you knowing it.

It is your great love for Me, your great desire to please Me, that drives you to every decision and every movement, no matter how small. I am infinitely grateful to you, for you bring Me the comfort that I have needed so much. Please, no matter how difficult or discouraged you may feel, do not give up this practice of doing these little things for Me out of love for Me.

Yes, the small things lead to the big things. I know that many of you have repressed the thought of ambition and gaining influence among people. Although it would not be difficult for you to have that kind of influence in your circle of friends, you have avoided it for fear of pride and vanity. My brides, in this regard you have listened to Me very carefully and focused your heart only on Me - and you have also avoided many traps of the enemy that would have been set for you on that path.

You have sold all your plans to the world to buy this one precious pearl... the happiness of My heart. How can I thank you for that? For the thousandth time, I will never be able to thank you for it. But I want you to know that you are on the right path. You please Me, and in this dark and desolate world, each one of you is My sunshine. You cannot even begin to imagine what I have prepared for you on the other side when you come to live with Me in heaven. Suffice it to say that you will never be tired or discouraged again. The deepest desires of your heart will be satisfied, and you will live in perpetual joy and bliss, even though at times you will grieve for your fellow human beings on earth.

I want you to know that your smallness makes a difference in this world; even in the world of My Church and its structures, where there is sometimes endless promotion and recognition, a vying for more influence and control. I hate this, and I have to witness it every day in My Body. What I want to say is that your devotion to this littleness gives Me inexpressible joy and even bliss, because you have chosen the better part. Oh dear ones, never do anything out of a desire to please people or get their applause. Satan's ways are so insidious, and through this attitude many are trapped and brought down. They lose My company and the sweetness We enjoyed in the garden of their heart.

They wanted the world, the influence and the money - more, more, more of the things of the world - so they chose the political life within the church to accumulate wealth and fame. How beautiful is your littleness next to these creatures made in My image who have turned into grotesque monsters through their poisonous desires. Do not be deceived by this lifestyle. You are truly My sunshine in this world, and Satan despises your decision to honor Me.

When you are promoted, when doors are opened for you, be careful. Not everything is as it seems. Do not depend on anything or anyone outside of Me. Often it seems harmless to enjoy the benefits that these positions bring, and the enemy secretly draws you into his plans to become dependent on anything outside of yourself. Anything outside of yourself and your relationship with Me is very dangerous. Never depend on anything or anyone outside of Me.

Always be ready to renounce this position if you are tempted to compromise. Be ready to step back and preserve your relationship with Me, rather than to take these things and give in to compromises - because that will be your undoing. It is better to be without that position than to get what you want by compromising what you believe I have called you to do and which you are convinced in your innermost being is right. Stick to this uncompromising lifestyle, and you will continue to be My sunshine.

Satan hates what you have. He hates your humility. He hates your conversations with Me. He hates your worship, and his whole purpose is to take these things away from you. So be careful. In the meantime, spread the joy and peace of having Me as your Lord and renounce the emptiness of the world. Protect our appointment time with relentless vigilance so that you do not become weak or lukewarm and fall away from Me.

-2-

Remember, My brides, you are My sunshine; you are My light in the darkness of this world, and you are massively feared by the kingdom of darkness. Your angels are far superior to anything the enemy has, and they are not afraid to take authority and control the enemy. You are My eternal love... in you I have great joy."