

Jesus says...Have you seen the destruction of Notre Dame and understood the message?

April 18, 2019 – Words from Jesus to Udo for all who have ears and hear

"Rome and Alexandria, etc., have adopted some of the noble ways of the rich and powerful. This does not please Me. Sincerity and simplicity, with which the poor can identify, is what I want for My priests. Rome is falling, and so will all the other faith communities when they introduce wealth, power and prestige through their liturgies.

They were warned from the beginning by the apostles, but instead chose their own will and glory to gain power, position and respect through the corrupt rich.

There will come a time when I will be on earth, when the liturgy will be transformed. But you, as mortal men, cannot improve upon the Last Supper that I celebrated with My apostles.

If you want to please Me alone and not men, you will put aside these foolish impulses to imitate the world. Cling to My heart with all your strength and return to how I have done, although you can include simple prayers of repentance and petitions for others. This will please Me greatly, and it will bring abundant fruit without worldly contamination.

My dear, I feel as if I am speaking to impenetrable walls when all My petitions are ignored and the ways of men are preferred. You are fighting against a monster of immense proportions that Satan has erected in the churches over the centuries. That is why it feels as if your petitions fall on deaf ears.

For the sake of faith, I will not chastise or elaborate at the moment, but the rotten fruits will appear wherever servants cling to worldly ways.

To be honest with all of you: I would prefer that My Supper be celebrated in a grass hut with banana leaves and simple clay pots. Because of the corrupted liturgies and consecrated altar objects in their excessive wealth, the poor hunger and cry to Heaven for justice, and they have done so throughout all generations. But this will become clear to you when I come.

For now, My heart desires simplicity and even poverty, and that it be done with great respect for My body and blood. But who will hear Me? Who has ears that hear?

Did you not see the destruction of Notre Dame? Don't you see the message in it? The message is simple... Now the time has come when the compromises in My Church and its bitter fruit will be destroyed.

When you stand before the guillotine, you will realize the scope of My teaching; not when you stand before a great work of art and architectural wonder.

The signs are upon you, My people. I am purifying the house and separating the sheep from the goats. Those who cling to this world will be given to Satan's flocks of goats. Those who belong to My flock will be taken.

Those who are left behind will arrange their priorities and choose whom they will serve. The goats will be of high status, and the sheep will be led to the slaughter. You have had many years to make up your minds. This has made you comfortable on the fence and engaged in both worlds. The fence is breaking down and you will be forced to make a final decision.

Those whom I ordain and appoint now will not be concerned with worldly affairs; rather, they will live every moment of their lives exclusively for Me, as best they can.

This means that marriages will come to an end, children and relatives will be lost, comfortable living will fall by the wayside, because My sheep will also be My fighters who will live on earth in the harshest circumstances as soldiers of God, without turning their heads to all the wealth of the world that passes them by. Their only concern will be the salvation of souls and their entrance into heaven.

They will be connected to My heart and be small, but mighty together with My power. They will be ugly to the world, but glorious to the angels who accompany them in their tasks. I will pour out the riches of My heart on these simple ones. And the world will be amazed. They will come from the poverty of the manger and yet be able to feed thousands, just as I did.

They will be My people, and I will be their God. Choose wisely."
