

This is a wake-up call for the body of Christ... Come now, take My hand

July 13, 2022 - Words from Jesus to Udo for the bride and all who have ears and hear

"My heart is pierced by all kinds of knives, spears, nails and instruments of torture. They have duplicated My body and use it ceremonially to torture Me, and this is done in secret around the world.

The pain they inflict on My body is nothing compared to the pain My faithful servants inflict on Me with their unbelief and rejection of My graces. I need each and every one of them, but they are reluctant because they are busy with the world and everything that belongs to a safe and comfortable life.

My chosen ones, when I allow illnesses while you are in the world and live a worldly life, it is often an invitation to detach from the world and serve Me only. I do not call everyone, but only My favorites. I know the heart of man, and I also know what he will be on the Day of Judgment. That is why I call many men and women to leave the world and serve Me. I want vocations for this order. I want vocations for this order because they will appeal to the common man who is so often overlooked because the clergy focuses on tithes and offerings. Money speaks with a very loud voice.

Those who realize that they are wasting their lives on themselves and who desire to be closer to Me and work for Me are the ones I am targeting in this season. I want to train them and prepare them to reach the truly destitute of this world. Destitution is not only about money, but also about the hunger for God, for holiness, among those who are drowning in the world because there is no one to teach them.

And just in case you have forgotten... I want to see resurrected in My Church the simplicity of the first century apostles. Fundamentalism has stolen much of My Church, and many are too deeply asleep or too busy making money in the world to realize that this present type of "Christianity" does not resemble what I established in the first century.

How long will you slumber, you intelligent ones? How long will you follow men and reject what I gave you in the early church? Do you not understand that Satan has infiltrated ALL churches and, under the guise of righteousness and correctness, has continued the tradition of men to erase what I gave you in the first century?

I do not impute malice to those who perpetuate their denominational view of Scripture and present their viewpoint as "superior." This is merely a consequence of their ignorance and lack of study and their desire to follow the group and perpetuate the dogmas of men. Study and do your best to be confirmed by God - not by men. Take off your three-piece suit, roll up your sleeves and stop pretending all the time to look kosher in the eyes of the world and today's society that you so want to fit into, for this supposedly safe and beautiful life that people assume is from Me. It is not from Me. It comes from your need to belong and be accepted. That is why you do not want to explore the early church. It will bring you into conflict with the teachings that the enemy has used to destroy My graces that I left you in the first century.

Do you belong to Me, or do you belong to your denomination? Do you really belong to Me or to your bank account? Do you really belong to Me or to your social relationships? Many of you who feel so secure in your Christianity will be left behind because your heart does not belong to Me. You are living according to a twisted prosperity version of the gospel.

You live a version of Christianity that has no courage, no suffering, no deficiency and no distress, no disease, no poverty, no demonic infestation and no persecution. Now stand next to the apostles in "Chosen" (war movie, true incident) and realize your nakedness. Examine your life and see if it has anything in common with mine. This should make you realize that what you are doing is far from the path.

This is a wake-up call for the body of Christ. The time is coming upon you, and you are far from being ready, My bride, to be without stain, crease and flaw.

What does it mean to have a stain? When was the last time you opted for a more socially acceptable solution to avoid being criticized by the wealthy? Has someone come to you to be liberated from demonic oppression, but you sent him to another church and said, "We don't do that here. That is for shady people and drug addicts. We don't have that problem here."?

What does it mean to have a crease? Do you habitually avoid the poor in your community, preferring to have lunch with your colleagues rather than invite them and pay for their meal?

How many times have you avoided those who are beneath you because you would look bad if you were seen with them? A crease is a long-standing habit of rejecting what you should do out of love for God. So you want to build your social standing by associating with the rich and avoiding the poor and those with questionable backgrounds.

And what does it mean to have a flaw? If your heart is pure, your blood will be pure, your thoughts will be pure, what is inside you will be pure. How often do you find fault with what other people are wearing, where they work and what they do for a living? When you condemn them, you also condemn Me, for I live in them. And whether you see it or not – this is a spiritual flaw on your own soul, as sure as a leprosy eating away at your nose.

I present to you a mirror – My mirror – so that you can determine where you stand with Me, not with men. I am giving you more time, along with a wake-up call for those who think they are My brides. I want you to be ready when I come, but there is still much to be done in your souls, and I am explaining much of it here so that you will have no excuse on that day. When you are left behind, you will remember this message and other messages from My Church warning you to be ready, for I come for a holy bride, not a half-hearted bride sold to the world. Take My hand now, examine your life and teaching, because there are so many misconceptions in the Christian educational institutions, and no one wants to capsize the boat. That's fine – they can stay in their boats – but the truth seekers will capsize those boats, and I will have them safely with Me in heaven on that day.”
