

Bizarre events are coming... Be prepared and well informed

July 28, 2022 – Words from Jesus to Udo for the bride and all who have ears and hear

"As in the days of Noah, today's events will take many completely by surprise. This is partly because I have been preparing you for so long that they think it is another false alarm, but soon the fulfillment will come, causing many to wonder if this is really that time.

But you, My brides, shall come closer and closer to Me every day, clinging to Me and being fully awake regarding the written prophecies.

My devotees, right now I want to spend more time with each of you. I long to hold My bride in My arms, to comfort her, and also to dance with her. Dancing is a beautiful thing when we move together to the sounds of sacred worship music.

Every day I wish you to come closer and closer to Me and become more and more a part of My heart, so that you can pray for the things that are most important to Me.

As you can see, the enemy's attacks are becoming more frequent. I am allowing this to happen in order to train you in warfare and judgment. Every day more and more demons from Nibiru are coming to earth. Sightings will become more and more frequent until you reach the point of full disclosure where you will see ships in the sky.

When that happens, there will be a massive PR campaign to convince you of their goodness and charity. Don't be fooled - they are all demonic beings with bad intentions! Then you must stand with your heads held high and notify as many as possible...These creatures are not kind - they have only your destruction in mind!

Understand that the elements contained in the COVID syringe will also begin to change people – they will be more inclined towards the demon realm. Many will display strange behavior and try to bite and devour people. Many antidotes will be made available, but without strict supervision many of them will fail. They have no sense of modesty and will often be spotted naked or in heavy canvas suits reminiscent of World War II.

At that time, the Nazi agenda will become more and more prevalent and accepted. And the children of those who do not pray will pay the highest price for it.

Yes, this is the time of the apocalypse, and many bizarre things will emerge from within the earth and from outer space.

People will be horrified, they will run and hide. But what has become of these people will be inevitable, and they will be violent and aggressive to satisfy their animal instincts. It will be a time like no other, My brides. You will not be able to reason with those who have received the COVID injection, because the core of their mind, where logic resides, will be missing. Prayer will be your only refuge.

These times are not far off, but their appearance is being strictly held back to coincide with other worldwide events that will have the earth reeling like a drunkard. You would do well to prepare for these times by praying and being well informed. They will respond to the use of My name."
