

Whose idea of life do you live... Who do you follow?

August 21, 2022 - Words from Jesus to Udo for the bride and all who have ears and hear

"Listen, My people, whoever of you says, 'I don't know God's will because I can't see or hear Him' - anyone who says that is either brand new to the faith, or lazy, stiff-necked, unbelieving, or they are protecting their own opinion. They are only in it for heaven - not out of love for Me.

Tell Me this, those of you who know Me... Would I allow Myself to be tortured, tormented and crucified for you, and then not give you the opportunity to find out what My will is for your life? This thought is completely ridiculous. You have been led to believe that it is not possible for you to hear from Me, see Me, or receive My help for your life. And I have given you so many helps to get there - but do you use them? I have a special gift and calling for each of you. I have endowed you with the DNA to fulfill that will, yes, with My help. So you have no excuse for your ignorance and lack of knowledge.

Now, I have not said these sharp things to hurt or rebuke you, My beloved ones. I have said them because they are true, and you must stop listening to the demons who only sow confusion. You must no longer say, 'I do not know,' for I have given you the means to know all things that concern your life and your divinity. It is simply a matter of taking the bull by the horns and throwing it to the ground, and persevering despite all the lies to the contrary.

I am asking you now to take hold of the tools and sharpen your discernment, fully trusting that I will guide and direct you, and then simply follow the steps I set before you. You will then be like Adam who heard My voice in the garden; you will walk and talk with Me throughout all the days of your earthly life.

The most important basic rule you must follow to achieve this goal is to be absolutely convinced that all your intentions, opinions, ideas, preferences and thoughts about your destiny mean nothing to you. You must completely give up your opinions, and then we can work on your judgment. But until you come to this conviction, you will not be able to reliably hear or see Me. My sheep know My voice because they follow Me, but many follow themselves, their parents, what society approves of, what will make them rich and famous, what they like to do and what they never want to do.

They are disabled for life. I know this is an enormous statement, but look around you: How many people love what they do and flourish in their vocation? And I'm not talking about making money. I mean that they have peace and don't care about money or security. All they want is to please Me, no matter what I call them to; whether it is martyrdom or creative gifts in a peaceful environment. These have absolute peace deep within themselves, and nothing anyone says to them can turn them away from My holy will.

Do you want to be among those who live a full and joyful life, knowing that I am with you every step of the way because it is My will and I am faithful to equip you?

Before you can sharpen your judgment, you must learn humility and obedience. If these qualities have truly become part of you, you are well equipped. Throw all your preconceived ideas overboard and come before Me completely empty. From this place I can guide you.

Some have felt the urge for a long time, but you belong to your parents, and what they say goes.

So you are at the university learning to serve the world. To you I say: I am very sad for you. I pray that you wake up with only the desire to fulfill My plans for your life. You will never find fulfillment and happiness if you follow your parents' opinions about what you should do with your lives.

And right now you are not happy; you are not at peace. You have so many questions about what you were really created for. You have this deep uneasy feeling in your gut that what you are spending all your time and energy on is really not what you want to do deep in your heart.

Dear ones, it is so simple... Stop living for everyone else. Follow your heart until it tells you that you have found your place in life. You will never be truly happy and fulfilled until you do. I called you, but you missed Me, and now you are on a completely different course than what I called you to.

Allow Me to give you some divine advice... Detach yourselves from everything and everyone and spend some time seeking only Me and My will for your life. Autumn is coming, and with the change of seasons come the changes in life that I am orchestrating.

I call you again, beloved, do not turn away from Me this time, for you will deeply regret it for the rest of your life. Say YES to Me and observe how I advance your detachment from the world. Truly, this is where judgment begins, away from every worldly burden.

I am with you and will not abandon you in this work. If you follow Me, you will find the strength, ability and courage to continue even if the whole world is against you."
