

Jesus says... Take this more seriously!... When this war starts, it will be hell on earth

10/14/2022 – Words from Jesus to Udo for the bride and all who have ears to hear

"I ask you all to take your prayers much more seriously. When this war begins, it will be the beginning of hell on earth. You are not prepared for it. Therefore, I ask you for more prayer, much more prayer and preparation to examine your conscience. Dive deep, beloved. There are many things that you pass over. These will be terribly embarrassing to you in the hour of your visitation. But if you address it now, by repenting and turning around and changing your lives, it will not be so. There is very little time to go deep into your soul and confess the things that should not be there. So I suggest that you get to work immediately.

My precious brides, these are the little things that you overlook or sweep under the rug; things that are really important to Me and that will appear as stains on your wedding dress. They are the little foxes that you pass by and make excuses for. They are symptoms of a deeper cancer in your heart, and I am bringing them to your attention now so that in that hour you may be full of joy and not feel regret for not having dealt with these hidden things.

They appear like little bubbles on the surface of the ocean, telling you that there are sharks under the surface. I want all sharks to disappear from your heart and life. They lead you in the wrong direction with their influence and steal graces.... Those that I cannot yet give you because of those things that are still floating around in your lives. I want you all to deal with the faults for which you apologize, which in reality are signs of your indifference to Me.

A complete surrender means that you want to free yourselves from all aspects of your "own" life and how these attachments build walls between us. Are you willing to do this?"

(Udo) Lord, I am ready to be made willing.

(Jesus) "This is a beginning, and that is why I want you to spend more time in prayer and pick up holy scriptures (manifestations) so that I can uncover these hidden things that block My graces. You will experience a moment of crystal clear thinking when all these obstacles are revealed to you. Recognize them now and work to remove them, or at least ask Me to help make you willing.

I am revealing these things only because I love you and want to transmit My fullness to you to the extent that you can handle. I want you all to operate from a higher place, above all the emotional turmoil that will surround you. Please take this to heart and examine your conscience to a thorough examination. Repent before Me and do your best to change these bad habits. I will forgive you and give you the grace to change your life.

Just cooperate with Me, and when the moment comes when you can see yourselves in My mirror, everything will be revealed, and you will know the state of your soul before God. When that moment comes, you will have no heartbreaking remorse, for war is coming – the war that will end all wars. We are in that season, dear ones."
