

He who has ears, let him hear what the voice of Almighty God says

From The Lord, our God and Savior – The Word of The Lord, spoken to Udo – for all those who have ears and hear

Udo, hear My Words and understand, receive from Me and find peace. For that which I share with you now will answer your worries and increase your knowledge, and you will have peace.

Thus says The Lord... I will, and it is done. I speak, and it is heard. My voice echoes throughout the earth, yet very few have ears that hear. And though My voice is truly made known, even throughout the world, yet they refuse to hear.

But you, Udo, have embraced My voice. Your ears I have opened. Therefore, when I speak to you, you hear and also write it and then you trumpet, My voice is also carried out with the four winds of heaven, carried out to every corner, penetrating every ear.

But the hearts of these people have grown cold, they will not listen... Behold, they have hated the sound of My voice.

Therefore, listen and understand... The day is upon you, when I shall gather up My sheep and every lamb, even those who sleep shall be lifted up, and the first harvest shall be completed in a moment. And even if this trumpet reaches many tens of thousands, compared to the entire population of the earth, you will still have reached only a few before the first harvest has begun and is completed.

For I tell you a secret, which is now made known... I am The Lord... And My voice is a consuming fire... The sound of it is carried to the farthest reaches of the universe. Therefore, that which I speak to you has already gone out into the world, even into every ear. For that which I command you to trumpet is an echo of My Word, which I have spoken to this generation, so that those who have heard it and accept My Word and also heed My call, may seek out its sound and be blessed thereby, for further edification... As a continual song which draws them to its source.

But most refuse to listen; they cover their ears. They rather embrace this world and its tempting song, which leads quickly down the wide road to destruction.

For those who are dull of hearing, and those who are wicked in heart, whose tongues testify to their own demise, whose ears have become accustomed to evil, their thoughts and reveries are contemptible... For these, My letters and My Word in the Writings of Truth have become a stern warning, an unrelenting siren that blows incessantly on the wall, that does not cease to torment their corrupted souls... like fire on their skin, like sand in their eyes, like burning wax dripping into their ears.

Therefore, Udo, those who hear Me will also hear you, and those who reject Me will also reject you. And those who love Me will also love you, and those who hate Me will also hate you. And those who seek out this trumpet and love its sound will help you, and those who fail to do so will fight against you.

And so I will increase the sound of My voice seven times, as in Jericho, until all things break and all are broken!... Many broken to death, ground to dust under The Stone, which shall be laid in Zion, for The Stone shall become a great mountain, filling the whole earth.

While yet others, My hidden treasures, My battered and wounded sheep, the wild ones of My flock, are broken and come to rest completely on this same stone... The Rock of My enduring promise.

Behold, My Word has gone forth, and It resounds throughout the earth, It echoes through My body, through mouth and trumpet... For I AM The Lord, and I change not. As I AM, so shall I be, and so have I ever been... From everlasting to everlasting - I AM.

That is why I have spoken it and will say it again before this twisted and wicked generation, even though they cannot bear to hear it in any way: I HAVE COME! THE TIME IS HERE! And behold, I, The Lord your God, shall do nothing, until I have revealed My plans to My servants, the prophets... And this I have done...

Honor Me! Kiss The Son! For darkness is upon you, and great turbulence has come upon this generation; the likes of which no generation before has ever seen, nor shall any generation hereafter see!... The great and terrible day of The Lord! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth! Your God has come down to you with judgment and destruction! WITH CALAMITY!

Behold, I have come forth from My sanctuary to destroy!... Until there is no more sin in the land, until all things have bowed before Me to honor Me! And for those who kiss The Son, for them I shall be a God very close at hand; they too shall rest upon My lap.

Yet for those who forsake Me, who always rebel against Me and curse My name and the Messiah, even for them I shall be a God, very near at hand... The God of vengeance and retribution! The God of judgment and justice!

Behold, I shall be The God of terror and terrible signs for them and their idols, the destroyer of all their temples!...

The One who reigns in Israel, who breaks apart all their false foundations!... The King, The Mighty and Strong, who shatters and also sweeps away all they hold sacred!... IT WILL BE DESTROYED!

Behold, I, yes I, shall kill every God of the Gentiles, for they are no Gods! Even the God of the sons of Ishmael shall die in that day, for he is no God! HE DOES NOT LOOK LIKE ME AT ALL!... Then they shall know that I AM THE LORD!

For there is none other and none like Me... The One True God, THE ONLY GOD, whose fury has come in His burning jealousy - Elohim YHWH - who is also your only salvation and escape. Behold, all shall know Me and see My face – YESHUA. Therefore, bow down and honor My name, for it is time!... Return to Me!...
